Speaker Biography

Renee Peyton

Renée Peyton has been a Communications Coordinator/Public Information Officer with the Bioterrorism Program of the Pima County Health Department (PCHD) since May 2007.

She attended Cornell University for two years and completed her Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental Health Science at Brigham Young University.

She is a Registered Sanitarian (RS) in Arizona and a Registered Environmental Health Specialist (REHS) in California. In addition, she is a RS/REHS with the National Environmental Health Association. The majority of her past seven years of working with the Consumer Health and Food Safety Division of PCHD have been spent in a regulatory and supervisory capacity.

Her current responsibilities include maintaining and updating the bioterrorism risk communication plan and the call center plans and protocols; interfacing activities with Pima County Office of Emergency Management and Homeland Security Emergency Operations Center; conducting notification drills utilizing the ADHS SIREN system; and co-chairing the PCHD Special Needs Task Force.
