Speaker Biography

Tim Siemsen

Tim Siemsen is the Volunteer Resources Coordinator with the Pima County Health Department. He is assigned to the Bio-Terrorism Preparedness Program and the County Office of Emergency Management and Homeland Security.

He has more than a dozen years of volunteer management experience, primarily with emergency response and public safety programs.

For the past year, Tim has served on the State Citizen Corps Council and represents Emergency Management on the Southern Arizona Regional Citizen Corps Council. He currently chairs the State Medical Reserve Corps committee and has been involved with Community Emergency Response Team training since 1991. He has also served as a law enforcement volunteer and volunteer trainer.

In his position at the Health Department, Tim is responsible for recruiting and training both medical and non-medical volunteers for daily Health Department operations and emergency response. He co-chairs the Health Department's Special Needs Planning Task Force and chairs the Faith and Community Based Planning Task Force.
